

Chippendayle Lodge Newsletter

*October 2018 * Issue

This Month's News

Last month saw another visit from Rhiannon at Creative Minds Art Therapy. Rhiannon got residents creating their own individual sunflowers with paints and printing techniques, they then arranged them all together on a large canvass to recreate the famous painting "Sunflowers" by Vincent Van Gogh. The finished artwork is proudly on display in our reception

Activities have been very generously been donated a brand new Ipad by A.W.Courts Funeral Directors, this will enable residents to Facetime family and friends, Reminice and Google Topics from their past and so much more

Our monthly Church service seems to be get busier each month, finishing the morning with a social natter and coffee and biscuits, everyone is welcome

Residents were treated to an afternoon of Saxophone and Singing by Micael Lack, everyone enjoyed it so much that an evening performance followed by cheese and biscuits is being planned, so any family and friends can come along and jion us for a lovely evening, WATCH THIS SPACE !!

We had the pleasure of a Women's Choir coming in to sing for us. One of our lovely residents used to be a member, and proudly joined them for th eperformance

October 2018 Entertainment

1st October

Library & Nails

3rd October

Bingo

4th October

Balloon Games

5th October

Armchair Olympics with Phil

9th October

Baking with Jan plus White Board Games

10th October

Church Service

Gary Guitar

11th October

Roll a Topic

12th October

Quiz

15th October

Library and Nails

17th October

Bird Feeders

1th October

Michelle's Fitness

19th October

Quiz

23rd October

Baking with Jan

24th October

Victoria Soprano Singer

29th October

Pumpkin Week

Making Pumpkin Soup/Flower Arrangements

31st October

Biscuit Decorating

R.H