Hillbeck News

August was a good month with some lovely sunny days for us to go into the garden.

We had Elvis and Debbie Haze in the courtyard singing. The ladies and gentlemen had a lovely afternoon singing along and we were very lucky with the weather on both afternoons.

It's so lovely to see family members coming for garden visits and everyone has been great following the guidelines.

We spoke about VJ day as on the 15th August we were celebrating 75 years since Japan surrendered. We had some amazing conversations about what some of our residents remembered about the war and how they celebrated when the war was declared over.

We would like to thank Kerry and The Company for the lovely engraved watches and gifts that we all received.

Thank You
