I believe that... Dementia takes a person's memories. It takes their ability to communicate, perform daily tasks, takes their freedom of choice... But it can't take their values, their inherent personality. They hang on to those and so must we...

Hillbeck News

Great news that the second vaccinations went so well. After a year in lockdown it's a bit of a silver lining.

While we are on good news, our outside entertainment is starting up in April and our favourite Kevin Walsh is first up. Let's hope we have some good weather for Kevin.

We had a great St Patricks Day. Irish stew and Bailey's cheesecake went down a treat. We had a good time doing a St Patricks Day quiz and fun facts... Did you know St Patrick wasn't Irish? We made a photo frame and decorated it with shamrocks covered in glitter. We had lots of fun taking photos.

Easter is next and we have started with arts and crafts doing Easter egg pictures.

It will be Easter Eggs throughout the weekend.

It's so lovely to see family members start coming in for the face to face visits, especially now we are vaccinated.

Mother's Day was lovely with all the window visits and Skype calls. We are really looking forward to the day everyone can come back into the home.
