Getting to know our Staff

Nicky

How long have you been working at Charing House?

I have been working at Charing House for nearly 2 Years.

What do you like most about your role at Charing House?

The part I like most is caring for the residents.

My happiest Moments while working here at Charing House are.....

Happiest moments are seeing the residents faces when lockdown was over and the family visits started. All residents were so happy.

Memories From April

Charing House Activities

Its our great pleasure to announce that we our now able to have singers and entertainment back! This will be done in Bessie's garden and will of course be weather permitting.

SSSSOOOOO!!!

Wednesday 26th May – ELVIS will be in the garden

Thursday 27th May – The Fabulous Scott Jenna will be here singing all your blues away.
