Hillbeck News

We have had such a busy month of May.

We were entertained by Peter Kneebone and Kevin Walsh. Our residents really do enjoy themselves when the singers come to the home.

VE Day we had a lovely buffet tea and some singing of the wartime songs with the Union Jacks out!

On Dementia Awareness week we made some salt dough Forget Me Not's... when they dried out we painted them and they are going to be hung up around the home.

We iced cupcakes and put Dementia rice paper toppers on, they all enjoyed eating them with their cuppa!

The barber came in and our gentlemen had a lovely time being pampered.

They all look so handsome.

We have had a plaque made for our residents that we sadly lost to covid. We had a memorial ceremony where the staff gathered around the plaque in the courtyard and we spoke about our memories of the residents. We had some lovely funny stories about each of them. It was very bitter sweet remembering all the amazing characters that we have lost and miss very much.

We are hoping that the sun comes out soon and we can get into the garden for more than 10 minutes before the next shower!

As always it's so lovely to see family members coming in for visits and on the Skype calls.
