Newsletter

June 2022 Issue

Throughout our newsletter you can expect to read a little bit about what goes on here at Chippendayle Lodge, we hope you enjoy!

Birthdays

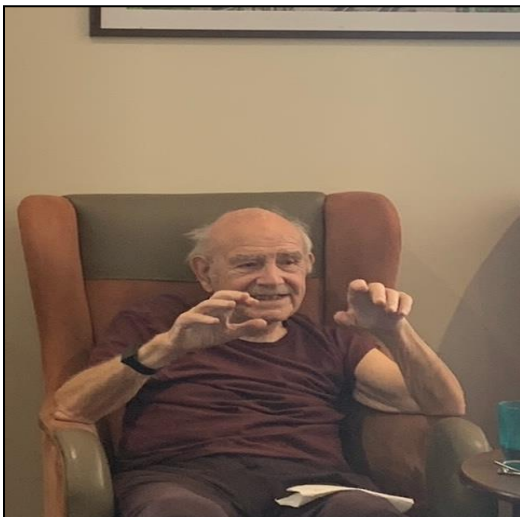

Residents celebrating their birthday in June are...

Raymond - 90yrs

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU !!!

A little of what we got up to in May.....

We continued to enjoy indoor entertainment!! We have had Peter Kneebone entertain us on a couple of occasions and here are some pictures

We have also started Armchair exercises on a Tuesday afternoon, thank you to Danielle for helping with this.

We have had our first outing for over 2 years to Aylesford Priory with a few of our residents who enjoyed being able to get out and about again and enjoyed a cup of coffee and cake

We are having a Tea Party to celebrate the Queens Jubilee with Jasmine coming to entertain us on Thursday 2nd June. We shall show you some photos in the next newsletter

Getting to know our staff

We are pleased to welcome our new Cook Fiona, who will start at the end of June this means that Shane can go back to what she loves which is Activities

Friends & Family

Some of you have been taking your loved ones home, for walks and out for meals which has been so lovely to see and hear about. Please do continue to book in your visits with us whether it be an indoor visit, outdoor visit or a skype call

We do get quite busy with visits so please do try to give us as much notice as possible. If you are thinking of visiting last minute, please do call us because we might have space to accommodate this!

Please keep an eye on your emails for regular updates regarding Chippendayle Lodge.
