Rosa's Round Up

What a lovely start to the New Year, we had a visit from the lovely ladies 'Less We Forget' a musical troupe. The wonderful ladies sang some old songs from the war days, which were truly lovely and quite emotional, fingers crossed we will have them back in a few month's time.

The residents have been busy creating some arts and crafts for Valentines Day and as always we love putting them on display throughout the home. We have been playing various mental agility games and keeping fit with our regular exercise sessions with Hayley at G-Fitness.

Through out February we have some great singers coming along so we look forward to seeing them, as they are our regulars and a great hit with the residents.

For now stay safe and warm

Best wishes always

From Rosa
