Hello April

- A good day isn't always
- Perfect. It challenges you to
- Release your potential and
- Inspires you to appreciate the
- Little, amazing things in life

Getting to know the staff

Lorraine

Lorraine is our home administrator and has been at Charing House For over 12 years. She started as a receptionist , then lead receptionist Before becoming home administrator. Being a people person Lorraine enjoys the interaction with our staff, residents and their visitors. Her best moment so far is reopening the doors to families to visit after covid.
