Hillbeck News

We have had such a busy month. We have been out for autumn walks to the garden centre, Fed coffee shop on Bearsted green and costa coffee. The residents have really enjoyed getting out for fresh air, a cup of tea and cake.

This month we have had two singer's Claire who was fantastic, she had lots of us up dancing to some old classics. We also had Kevin Walsh in to sing to celebrate Pam's 90th Birthday.

On Tuesday the 23rd we had our first residents meeting and got some really good feedback from menu choice, activities, trips out and how they feel about the home in general. It was very productive.

We have been on two trips this month, the first was to little potters where the residents got to paint their own piece of pottery which they really enjoyed. After pottery we headed off for afternoon tea which was very nice, we can't wait to go back.

The second trip was to Maidstone Museum, we also visited the Sue Ryder charity shop, St Francis church and Harlequins fancy dress shop then topped off with lunch at the glass house pub.

We have brought some new gadgets for the residents to use which has been great fun.

Our Chinese themed lunch went down a treat, and was enjoyed by all, we had lots of clean plates.
