R

Rosa's & Marion's Round Up

Hi All,

We kicked off the month with an indoor fireworks tea, instead of fireworks we had colourful bubbles and instead of sparklers we had fibre optic wands, big glittery light up balloons as our bonfires! Everyone had hotdogs and cakes and it made for a lovely afternoon which everyone enjoyed. We also did some fireworks arts and crafts which looked great!

We remembered the fallen and injured of all of the wars by making a beautiful board full of poppies, sang songs and watched the Remembrance Day procession on the TV. Many of our residents remember being children, being evacuated and some fought in the war. All the stories were amazing, interesting and very moving.

We had the pleasure of the local vision choir, who signed Christmas songs as well as some of our old favourites and many of the residents joined in the signing.

We have had some great singers this month, Deja Vue came in and treated us to a medley of songs including some Abba hits! The residents were dancing and singing along!

We have had our usual Yoga, Exercise and Music therapy sessions which are always a bit hit.

We must give a massive congratulations to an amazing couple, John and Vera, who celebrated their 70th Wedding anniversary this month. They thoroughly enjoyed their celebratory Cream Tea and we wish them many happy more years together!

Finally at the end of the month we welcomed back Elvis, which is always a treat! As usual he got the room up and dancing!

We are busy getting ready for Christmas, presents from Santa are already here and Santa's little helpers (AKA Marion and I) will be busy wrapping and making sure everyone gets a present from Santa on Christmas Day. We can't wait to see their faces on Christmas morning when he arrives!

It's going to be a busy December... We have parties, live music, Salvation Army, Christmas Jumper Day and lots more Christmassy activities...

Love as always

Rosa & Marion xxxxx

PS...We would love your donations for our Christmas Raffle and don't forget to buy your tickets! All proceeds go to the resident's fund, to make all our fantastic activities possible!
