Hillbeck News

We would like to welcome our new Residents Gwen and Dawn to Hillbeck, we hope you're settling in well.

February has been a fun packed month with lots of delicious food here at Hillbeck.

We started the month with Michael singing for us. Everyone enjoyed a good sing along and boogie to some of our favourite songs.

We celebrated Valentines day by decorating some heart shaped biscuits which were enjoyed along side a nice cup of tea. We were also serenaded to by the lovely Jason Allen who is always a hit at Hillbeck.

Chinese new year was celebrated by a delicious homemade chinese lunch which is a favourite of our residents.

It got very messy decorating pancakes with various toppings, these were enjoyed by all and looked mouth watering.

The sun came out briefly so we made the most of it and took a walk to the garden centre. After a little look around we tucked in to a tasty cream tea which was a real treat.

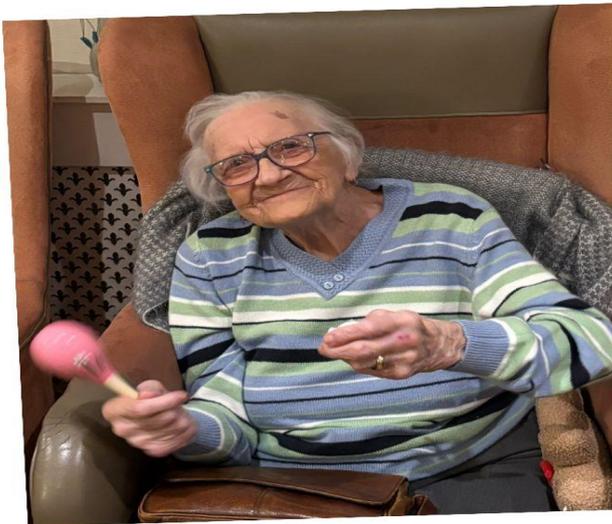

We ended the month by celebrating Norma's birthday and was entertained by the lovely Clarie who always gets everyone involved.
